

KS1: The Music of Holst

Using experience, and percussion inspired by the music of Gustav Holst pupils will develop their understanding of classical music.

Pupils will

- Learn about Gustav Holst
- Learn simple musical terms and apply them correctly
- Listen and respond to others in a group
- Play tuned and untuned percussion under direction
- Evaluate their own musical work

Curriculum links

The session will help to ensure that all pupils can:

- Listen with concentration and understanding to a wide range of high quality live and recorded music.
- Play tuned and untuned instruments musically

This session works best as outreach. Our facilitators can bring all of the necessary equipment to your school and deliver it for you.

Cost

- £5.00 per child or £65 minimum charge;
- 2 hour session
